SUMMER EDITION 2011

A MESSAGE FROM THE LEFT SEAT:

Summer time is a period of rest and relaxation (not counting gardening, lawn mowing, house painting and repairs, etc.) and not much else. As a result, there's a dearth of news regarding our Association.

One thing of note is that Tiny Ledford, with the able help of his wife, Mary, has officially taken over as our Association's Treasurer.

Bill Kearney is getting things going regarding the 2013 Reunion that will be held in Virginia Beach. I'll provide more news about that as it develops.

It appears that the Brunswick Naval Museum, planned for the former NASB, may actually reach fruition. At our reunion business meeting it was decided that if development of the museum is successful, our Association will contribute our collection of squadron artifacts to the facility. Funds will be needed to get the Museum up and running. A contribution of $60+ will make you a "Member." A contribution of $160+ will make you a "Founding Member" and will get your name on the Museum's web site (www.brunswicknavalmuseum.org) and on a permanent marker at the Museum. Contributions are tax deductible and should be sent to:

Brunswick Naval Museum and Memorial Gardens
P.O. Box 943
Brunswick, Maine 04011

Keep safe.

Bill

A MESSAGE FROM THE WEBMASTER:

This Independence Day marks the one year anniversary of my assumption of the roll of Webmaster. Frank Balogh created and brought the website online in the Fall of 2002, and he maintained it until his passing in September, 2009. We are eternally grateful for Frank's achievement and the website remains as a memorial to him.

It has been a challenging, but enjoyable learning experience, and I plan to continue the good work that Frank started.

All hands are encouraged to visit the website regularly at www.VP-21.org to stay up to date between Vagabond editions.

I welcome any suggestions and ideas which could improve the website. It is my intention and charter to make the site useful and enjoyable for all of our members. Please contact me at my email address Webmaster@VP-21.org.

“Fair Winds and Following Seas” to all.

From the Storekeeper: Carter Nute has nothing to report for this quarter.

From the Online Coordinator:

Taking the membership from the “”snail mail roster””, and arraying that data by state, I found that we currently have 1,132 members living in 47 states, and two provinces of Canada. Not represented as having any former VPB-111’ers or VP-21’ers are the states of Hawaii, North and South Dakota where, I guess, it’s just too darn cold or hot (I’ve been to both North and South Dakota, and they are really quite nice).
